PRICE TWO CENTS

The Threshold of Life

Many men allow themselves to attain middle age before thinking of Life Assurance. The subject should make its strongest appeal to a man standing upon the threshold of his career.

Life Assurance is always economical. If taken up at an early age it is doubly so. Endowment Assurance taken up now, matures at the moment when either your business or your family will feel the benefit of it most.

Avoid the regrets that many men feel in later life.

SHAG'S MEN BEAT QUEEN'S DECISIVELY

Greatly Adversated Team Fails To Show Superiority.

GREAT VICTORY

McGill Prospects for Inter-Collegiate Title Very Bright

Probably never before in the history of football in Montreal has such a highly touted team displayed such an apparent lack of tuition in even the rudimentary elements of the game as Queens did on Saturday. Coach Awrey, who announced in one of the leading local journals that the tri color squad was brainier, faster and snappier than McGill must have forgotten to bring the cogs that make the wheels go around and produce such a gratifying result. From the opening play until Carroll kicked the last point there was never any question of McGill's superiority; they out-played, out-guessed, out-gamed and out-stayed the mighty Kingston team. They proved beyond a doubt that the Red and White are to be serious factors in any dispute for the pennant and that any team that beats them will be the team to win the title.

Saturday's game did more for McGill than a month's practice could have accomplished, for it restored the morale of the team, gave it confidence in its ability and strength, and demonstrated the worth, dependability and gameness of its substitutes. It was a pleasing sight to see youngsters, just blossoming into senior company, play with the coolness, assurance and intelligence of the ablest of veterans. It was thrilling to see Robertson, Eason, Emo and the two McComb brothers tearing into their sturdier opponents and hurling them back for gains.

To see Carroll flash such wonderful kicking ability, and to watch Phillips dash madly through broken fields for sensational gains, to hear Baillie's voice with its familiar snap as the team answered as one man to his signals, to know that every play by the opposition was receiving the personal attention of Anderson and Little, gave the youngsters the necessary vim to show their best.

Shaughnessy sent forth a team, weakened by the absence of several regulars, and by the force of his confidence in them and his determination to see McGill win, led his squad to a victory that was a vindication of his own methods and a demonstration of the fact that McGill spirit is not dead, and that it takes more than the disabling of two or three regulars to make its representatives lie down and take a licking.

QUEENS TEAM FAIL TO ATTEND DINNER

Dinner Given at Union in Their Honor.

A dinner was given in the Union dining room on Saturday evening, in honor of the Queen's football team, but, much to the disappointment of those present, the Queen's team failed to materialize. Rumors are to the effect that Coach Awrey hurried his team off on the 7 o'clock train in order not to subject his stalwarts to the temptation of a night in the "wild and woolly" city. However, a very pleasant time was enjoyed by those present, who included the Principal, Sir Arthur Currie, Hugh Gall, and W. Foulds, referee and umpire respectively of Saturday's game, Frank Shaughnessy, and the members of the McGill team.

Several speeches were presented, amongst which that of Hugh Gall deserves special attention. The theme of his words brings up a time-worn discussion around the college, namely, the advisability of freshmen competing in Intercollegiate sports. The speaker was of the opinion that first-year men should not be allowed to compete in senior sports. This is a ruling in force in most large American colleges, and has for its outstanding reason the fact that it thus prevents a person from entering college for sports alone, to the detriment of his studies, it being thus thought that if a student is successful in passing his first year exams, he will be in a position to fully understand his position and consequently in his second year know the relative importance of studies and sports in his college career. This view was warmly endorsed by Sir Arthur Currie and Shag Shaughnessy.

WATER POLO GAME ON CARD FOR TONIGHT

The McGill Intermediate Water Polo team will meet the team representing the Maisonneuve Baths at the Maisonneuve baths tonight at 8.30. This is the second game for the intermediates. In the first they were successful against the La Salle team and hopes run high for a duplication of the feat tonight. The Maisonneuve team is reported to be a very strong aggregation and fully confident of victory, so all indications point towards a hard tussle when the two teams clash.

This game should attract a large crowd of rooters to help along the efforts of the intermediates.

The team to represent McGill tonight is as follows:
G. MacKendsey—Goal.
I. Forsyth—Defense.
W. D. Munro—Defense.
J. Ross—Centre.
A. Gravel—Forward.
G. Vickenson—Forward.
C. Anson—Spare.
A. Moore—Spare.
Mr. G. Moore will officiate as referee and W. Foran as "Judge of play."

CROCKER PLAYING TENNIS FINALS

McGill Man Features in Indoor Championship Tournament.

McGill tennis enthusiasts will read with pleasure of Crocker's success in the Canadian tournament for the indoor championship. Crocker was in McGill's team last fall, which carried away the championship at Toronto.

Yesterday afternoon he won a brilliantly contested match against R. L. Rennie, of Toronto, the score being 9-7 in the first set and 6-4 in the second.

In the semi-finals, later in the day, Crocker was victorious over A. S. Cassels, winning by a score 6-4 and 6-2.

To-day he is to meet E. H. Laframboise, the holder of the Provincial Championship, to decide who shall hold the title for Eastern Canada.

In the doubles, Douglas and Ramsay, the winners in the Inter-collegiate tournament, were defeated by Cassels and Grier. The score of this match was 8-6, 6-2.

MANY PLAY IN LADIES TOURNAMENT

Miss Robertson Champion of R.V.C. in Tennis Singles

GOOD PLAYING.

Bad Weather Prevented Contestants from Playing Up to Form.

Although during the progress of the R. V. C. tennis tournament the weather was most unfavourable some very good tennis was played. The matches consist of fifteen games while it is necessary for the winner to have a lead of at least two games. The class champion and winner up constitute the class doubles team.

Altogether there were thirty entries in the first round an approximately equal number from each year. The results of the class finals were as follows:

1st year E. Dunton defeated L. Desbarats, 9-2.
2nd year —C. Robertsan defeated J. Matthewson, 9-2.
3rd year —Z. Slack defeated L. Kerr, 10-5.
4th year —T. Rough defeated E. Snyder, 12-3.

In the inter-class matches the games were more exciting than the small number of supporters would indicate. In the tournament between the first and second year champions Miss Robertson defeated Miss Dunton by a score of 9 to 1. This was a much better game than it would appear from the score, in fact one of the best games of the tournament. Miss Robertson was playing at the top of her game and there were numerous deuce points and rallies. Although Miss E. Dunton is a strong player who made many good strokes Miss Robertson's victory was really due to her skill in placing the ball out of her opponents' reach.

The contest between the Juniors and Seniors represented by Misses Z. Slack and S. Rough respectively was probably the most closely contested match of the tournament. Twenty-four games had to be played before a decision could be reached. The final score was 13 to 11 in favour of Miss Rough. It was only by playing a consistently careful game throughout the match that Miss Rough succeeded in defeating Miss Z. Slack who was one of the strongest players in the tournament.

The finals between Miss Rough and Miss Robertson were played on the McGill courts on Friday afternoon. It was not as good a match as might have been expected from the previous games. Both players were tired and rather out of practice as the R. V. C. courts were in poor condition during the greater

MED. UNDERGRADS INITIAL MEETING

Prof. W. W. Chipman to Address Society.

The first meeting of the Medical Undergraduate Society, takes place this evening at 8 o'clock in the Assembly Hall of the New Medical Building. A very interesting program has been arranged, the main feature of which will be an address by Prof. W. W. Chipman the Honorary President of the Society, on the subject "The History of Obstetrics and Gynecology in America". Dr. Chipman is undoubtedly one of the leading authorities on this branch of Medicine, and to those who have heard him on former occasions no greater inducement could be offered to insure a large attendance.

Students of the first year are specially invited to get in touch with the Society immediately and not defer doing so until their upper years, for untold benefit may be derived from the constant association with things medical, even though a few technical difficulties may be encountered.

As usual, refreshments will be served which are justly famous for their high quality.

THE PENALTY OF EFFICIENCY.

Ability with a great many is hidden like the proverbial light under a bushel; it does not shine forth blatantly in the eyes of everyone. The men, who in their senior years are entrusted with the most telling and responsible student offices, often pass their first two years quite unnoticed by their fellows, but it is the men who have given proof of their capability that are generally thrust into a host of executive positions, greater in number than they can possibly cope with either in fairness to themselves or to the positions that they have been chosen to fill.

This state of affairs is, of course, natural enough. Unless good cause be shown no one will bother to look carefully beneath the surface if reliable material is ready to hand in sufficient quantities. The question is, does it pay in the end?

Even the most efficient member of a host of executives has only a limited amount of potential energy. All the good intentions and willingness in the world cannot carry him beyond this point. If his academic work suffers, it is his own business; if undergraduate interests suffer through the unwise overburdening of one man, it becomes a matter of general interest.

Electors should make a point of looking beneath the surface. Pure gold may not be on the surface, but it pays to dig for it.

MCGILL NEVER QUILTS!

A week ago the football team gave a demonstration of fighting spirit that will be remembered for many years to come, and Saturday last the players further demonstrated their determination to live up to the college standard by overwhelming the team which was chosen by many as the winners of this year's championship.

It must be admitted that the victory was sweeter because of the predictions of the Queens' coach previous to the contest. Scold in the history of intercollegiate sport has the chosen representative of another college made such statements as those credited to the Director of Athletics at Queen's University. His interviews to the press during the past week all showed a spirit of confidence in his own team, and a marked attitude of depreciation of the ability of his opponents.

Coach Awrey is a newcomer to college sport, but has no doubt learned in one day what has already become an axiom in Canadian Intercollegiate athletics. McGill never quits!

INTERESTING DISCUSSION BY CHEMISTS

Interesting Subject Discussed

PROF. RUTTAN

Speaks on National Research Institute.

The Chemical Society of McGill held its first meeting of the session 1921-22, in the Macdonald Chemistry and Mining Building on Friday, at 5 p.m.

The following officers for 1921-22 were elected:

Pres.—Dr. W. H. Hatcher.
Vice-Pres.—Dr. J. A. Grey.
Sec. Treas.—Dr. R. McGlauchlin.
Committee—Dr. Stansfield, Dr. Simpson and Dr. Johnson.

Dr. R. F. Ruttan was asked to address the meeting on "The National Institute for Research."

The speaker outlined the causes that led up to an order in council appointing an Advisory Council to link up Scientific Research with Labor and Capital towards developing the resources of the country in solving of industrial problems.

An investigation of the council revealed the fact that practically no research work was being done in Canada beyond the confines of a few of the Universities, the exception being in two Government departments, the Dept. of Forestry and Department of Mines. There was no co-operation between these departments, resulting in much duplication of work.

The Council stimulated public interest by bulletins and lectures to Canadian Clubs and Boards of Trades. The various industries were interested and gave every support to the work of the Council.

The Advisory Council next studied the condition and arrangements made in England, France, Italy, the British Dominions and United States for industrial research and arrived at the conclusion that a central institute was necessary.

A draft of the provisions was presented to the Government for consideration.

To the Editor
McGill Daily

Dear Sir: We have always understood that the object of the management of Strathcona Hall (S. C. A.) was to assist the students in every way possible. We should like to place the facts of the following incident before the student body.

At the beginning of the session we rented a room in Strathcona Hall. On or about October 3rd we decided we would prefer to room elsewhere. We found suitable quarters and explained our case to the management.

The management insisted that we give two weeks notice or pay two weeks rent, as is stated in the rules, adding that if we did not do so that our belongings would be confiscated.

Under the circumstances we were obliged to pay the two weeks rent—viz.: $16.00. Now this itself would not be so bad were it not for the fact that before we had all our belongings out of the room, it was occupied by two other students.

We were not consulted when these two students were given the room for which we had paid two weeks rent. Now was our money refunded. In this way the S. C. A. received double rent for the room for the two weeks.

Although sixteen dollars is not a large sum yet we think it means more to the average student than it does to the S. C. A.

Many thanks for your valuable space,
CHAS. D. EVANS,
C. B. Brown.

R.V.C. CHANGE MEETING HOURS

One O'clock Proves to be Unsuitable Time.

One o'clock has always been pointed to be a difficult hour for many members to attend Undergraduate meetings, at which there is much business for discussion. Many subjects not on the agenda sheet must necessarily come up, and it is impossible to give due consideration and time to all these matters, when one has a two o'clock lecture, and savouring odours are drifting in of lunch which one has no time for, or else no appetite, because all the tempting viands have become coldly uninviting. It has therefore been decided to hold all future meetings at 5 p.m. or at least to try the experiment and see if it is a success. It is to be hoped that all R. V. C. students will give this a fair trial, and make a real effort to be present, and thus ensure a good attendance. It is impossible for the executive to carry on all the business of the Society without the earnest co-operation of the members, and as every R. V. C. undergraduate is a member, it is expected that they will bear the fact in mind, and do their utmost to maintain a keen interest in all undergraduate activities.

(Signed) Winifred L. Birkett,
President, R. V. C. Undergraduate Society.

HARRIERS WILL PRACTICE TO-DAY

Last Run Before Interfaculty Meet.

This afternoon, at 5 o'clock sharp, the harriers will hold their last practice run before the big Interfaculty Harrier run on Wednesday. The Harrier Club has been travelling at a fast pace during the past week, but now that the track season is over it is expected that practically all of the long distance men will join up with the harriers. This will have the effect of increasing the number in attendance, increasing the pace, and in consequence increasing the competition.

The team will be chosen after the Inter-faculty meet on Wednesday, and there is no doubt but that the men who make the team, will have to be some runners. Varsity harriers are said to be going "great guns," and very keen competition is expected when the various teams meet at Kingston on November 4th. Therefore, McGill wants to have the best possible team for this annual event, and all are urged to turn out and have a try for the team. This afternoon will be the last chance for a good practice before the final selection, so all up, harriers, be ready to leave the Stadium at 5 o'clock sharp.

The following men are especially asked to turn out: Legg, Simpson, Wiggins, Creelman and McNider.

JUNIORS ARE SUCCESSFUL IN FOOTBALL

Never Defeated in Two Years

SCORE 11—8.

MacDonald Almost Came Through With a Win.

The Old Campus was the scene of a fast and furious game of football last Saturday morning between the McGill juniors and McDonald College. Not until the final whistle sounded could anyone be sure as to the fate of the game, for the two teams seemed to be about equally matched.

The last few minutes were the most exciting of the whole game; the score was 8-6 in McDonalds' favour, and McGill, by desperate line plunging, gradually approached their opponent's goal. They made yards time and again while McDonald struggled furiously to hold the line. On the last down for McGill, they were but a few feet from McDonald touch line, with the supporters of the home team clamouring for a score. One more frantic effort and the scrimmage pushed over the line, with the touchdown that won the game.

Both teams displayed good form in their playing apart from some fumbling and interference plays by McGill. The home team was strong on the offensive but seemed a little weak in their defensive work. McDonald used their bricking to advantage. Hutchison and McConnell played well for McGill while Smith was the star player on the McDonald team.

This makes four straight games won by the Juniors, who by the way, have not lost a game in two years.

Following is a short summary by periods.

First Period

McGill kicked off; McDonald kicked behind McGill goal line but McConnell ran it out. Adams and Snyder made good runs.

McConnell kicked for a rouge (1 point), McDonnell scored a touch for McGill (5 points); failed to convert.

Second Period

McDonald made yards twice. McGill fumbled and lost the ball. McDonald made yards again, Smith scoring a touch (5 points) and Harrison converted (1 point). McGill interference, McDonald gained ball near opponents' goal. Harrison kicked to head line (1 point).

Half time; McDonald—7; McGill—6

Third Period

Harrison kicked over for a rouge (1 point). McGill lost 15 yards for interference. McDonald made yards; Smith kicked through, making yards again; McDonald kicked over the line but McGill ran it out. McGill made yards twice and again on a run by Hutchison. Lost ball by interference.

Fourth Period

Harrison ran the ball out from a kick by McDonald. McGill made yards; Anderson and Hutchison both kicked through for yards. Close to McDonald touch line. McGill made yards on first down. Hutchison kicked through for yards again. On the last down for McGill, Blumenstein kicked through the scrimmage for a touch down (5 points) Failed to convert.

End of game; McGill—11; McDonald—8.

Line up of teams:

JUNIORS, ATTENTION!

All Juniors who wish to attend the Junior Dance must hand in their names to their class representatives not later than Tuesday noon. They are requested to remember that this signing up will be in the nature of a promise, and each man signing will be held responsible for a ticket. These will be about six dollars a couple.

There will be a very important meeting of the Committee on Tuesday, at 5 o'clock, in Room A, Strathcona Hall.

R.V.C. TENNIS DOUBLES TO BE STAGED TO-DAY

At three o'clock this afternoon the inter-year doubles will be played off. Misses Dunton and Desbarats will play Miss Robertson and Miss Matthews while Miss Z. Slack and L. FENCERS SECURE QUARTERS AT LAST Diocesan College Placed at Their Disposal.

The members of the Fencing Club will be glad to hear that through the kindness of the Principal of the Diocesan College, the gymnasium of that building has been placed at the disposal of the club on Tuesdays and Fridays from 5 to 7 p.m. This will give the men ample time for instruction, fencing among themselves, and a shower afterwards. Owing to the rules of the College, men are requested to refrain from smoking in the building, and to maintain reasonable quiet. It is not felt that these regulations will occasion any difficulty if they are made clear at the outset.

The first regular fencing practice will be on Tuesday, Nov. 1st. The fencing representative, however, will be on hand in the gym on Thursday, Oct. 27th, to take down the names of any new men and answer questions regarding equipment, etc.

Intending fencers are asked to come provided with a foil, a pair of ducks, gym shoes, and a leather right hand glove. For the glove, a gauntlet, though preferable, is quite unnecessary.

Members must supply their own towels and soap, and all equipment can be left in the gymnasium in the small lockers provided.

PEPYS AT MCGILL

Sunday, Oct. 23rd (Lord's Day.) As I had hoped most zealously our players at Football did quite chasten and put to confusion the players from the Queen's College. It would be a matter of but little marvel to me if my own presence had not something to do with the victory of our men, for, holding as I do, that we should keep to the word of those that are set over us as we do the dictates of Providence, I saw no shame in bedecking my garments with some streamers of red and white stuff, and a cap of the same colours to my head, as I had been told that by so doing I would rouse our men into a sort of phrenzy, and especially by waving a kind of sow's bladder puffed up with air, of the kind that the buffons do use in the court-masques. I take no small pride in that I did all this most dutifully. Nor did I find the Presbyterian fellows so discourteous in the end. Though not of gentle birth it may well be that they are of good yeoman stock, for on divers occasions throughout the play they did refuse the honour of carrying the football across the line, but choose rather some one among our own men for this office; whereas the crowd clapped their hands at the prettiness of this, and I think quite rightly too. I find it the custom of this place that they do not drink much of the wines that we did in England, but rather a kind of ale, which I tried and found quite good; especially a sort that they put into glass flagons for export into foreign lands; only it caused me to sleep so long this morning that I could not go to church, which I find a great shame to myself. Heard this day that the half-sister of my she-cousin Clarissa is very ill of the quincy, and like to die of it. Very sorrowful thereof.

She stood before the mirror

With her pretty eyes closed tight.

She wanted to see just how she looked

When she went to sleep last night.

SHAG'S MEN BEAT QUEENS DECISIVELY.

While speaking of pluck and endurance, it would be unfair and unportmanteau to pass on without a word of praise to Leadley, who limbed out of a sick bed and played against the doctor's orders, and who gave as great an exhibition of game-ness as has been seen here for many years. Leadley has played football at Montreal before, and it is a well known fact that he is capable of far better football than he showed on Saturday; how he was able to last as long as he did was a marvel, and the cheer that followed him as he was carried off the field was testimony of the fact that his nerve and pluck were realized and appreciated. Outside of Leadley, around whom the Queens plays were apparently built, there were only two men who showed to advantage. Harding and Evans did the bulk of the work, and displayed wonderful ability, especially Harding, who pulled off several forty-yard runs and brought the spectators to their feet time and again by running but kicks that were apparently tick-ets for rouses.

It would be foolish to try and pick an outstanding man on the McGill team, but if credit and praise for the victory must be given, then Dink Carroll would be picked as the star. It was from his boot that every McGill point came; he either kicked for rouses or drove Queens' back to their own line, where they were forced to attempt plays which resulted in disaster for them, but which proved highly profitable to McGill. Carroll has proved conclusively that he ranks as good and consistent a punter as there is in Rugby to-day, and his coolness at times when the opposing line was breaking through was astounding; he seemed to be utterly oblivious of the fact that there was any one charging at him, and he ever attempted to get his kick away until his wings had had sufficient time to get under way. He kicked equally well against the wind as with it, and at times was outbarring the Queens backs by twenty and thirty yards. The only praise that can be given to the rest of the team is to say that each man played like a champion, and if the squad displays the same form throughout the remainder of the schedule it will emerge from the 1921 season with the title of Invincible champions.

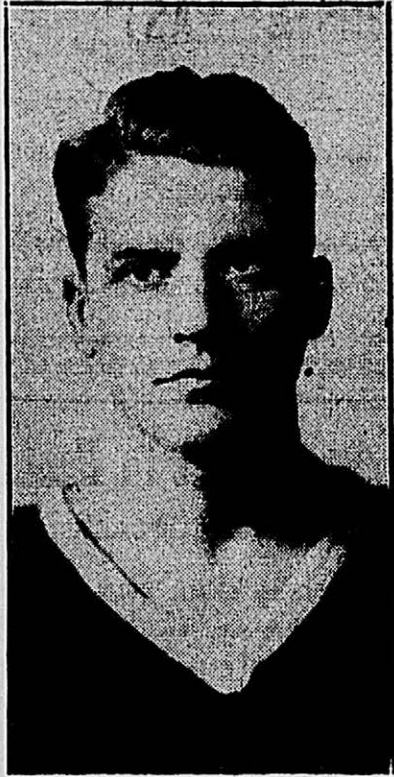

Shagnessy adopted a new style of attack which proved very successful, and at times had Queens dizzy, and with another week to perfect these formations should be able to show even a more varied style of offensive than was put forth on Saturday. An interested spectator on Saturday was Jack Maynard, the Toronto back, who evidently thinks that McGill are worthy of all his attention, and who is unlikely to make the same mistake as Queens in holding a team of real ability too cheaply. He will without a doubt start right in to solve a defence against the bewildering "HEP" shifts and arrange his offensive plays in such a manner that they will be directed against such weak points as he may have discovered in his close scrutiny of Saturday's plays.

First Quarter.
Queens won the toss and kicked with the wind to Baillie, who brought the ball to near centre. McGill made a mixture of bucks and end runs, and brought the ball within striking distance of Queens goal line, where Dink Carroll essayed a drop which fell short of the bar by inches, and was picked up by Harding, who made a determined effort to run it out, but was grassed by Little for McGill's first point. Queens had no sooner gotten the ball than they lost it again, and Carroll spiralled the way to a second point by sending a long kick to Leadley, who had absolutely no chance to relieve. The rest of the quarter consisted of repeated kicking duels in which Carroll, though against the wind, consistently gained. During this period McGill were penalized three times for interference, and twice for scrapping. Queens offended just as frequently, but were able to get away with it.

Second Quarter.
The quarter started with the ball on Queens 33 yard line, with McGill in possession for the third down. Carroll kicked a mighty spiral to Leadley, and had no chance, and should have roused, but who tried to return the ball against the wind; the effort was a dismal failure, and the ball landed behind the Queens line, where Philpotts, after diving over four opposing players, landed on the ball, giving the Red warriors five more points. Anderson attempted to convert, but the angle was impossible. After several exchange of punts, during which McGill's wings showed leadly tackling, Queens pulled an end run, and Harding, receiving a long pass from Leadley, tore through the broken field for fifty yards. Leadley tried an end run, and got ten yards before he was tackled and knocked cold. He received quite an ovation when he was carried off the field. McKelvey took Leadley's place as kicking half, and booted poor, and Carroll, taking advantage of it, kicked two more points before the whistle sent the two teams to the dressing rooms.

Third Quarter.
Leadley reappeared for Queens who seemed to brace up for a while but again Carrolls boat brought them to subjection and he kicked them back

RIFLE CLUB HOLDS SUCCESSFUL SHOOT

Conditions Are Not Best For Highest Scores.

Despite Saturdays' high wind the Rifle Club held its regular shoot and the scores showed a marked improvement over those of the last practice. Rounds were fired at two ranges, namely 200 yards and 500 yards. At the shorter distance the highest men were:

F. Mooney	33
H. A. Delcellier	31
F. Emmons	31
Possible	35

At 500 yards the shooting was not so good as considerable difficulty was encountered with the strong and gusty wind, in making corrections over each previous shot. The best scores at this range were:

F. Emmons	26
H. G. Ross	22
F. Mooney	21

The shoot next Saturday will be the first of four in the Dominion Government Salvage Competition and men wishing to enter must bear this in mind, as the prize is awarded to the highest aggregate in the four shoots.

steadily to their own line where a blocked kick gave McGill a touch which Anderson converted. Leadly was knocked out again and was taken to the dressing room and thence to his hotel. He played a plucky game. Harding was playing spectacular football for Queens and in an exchange of kicks he drove the ball to McGill dead line for Queens solitary point. Carroll not kicking as far or as high and McGill was steadily losing ground.

Fourth Quarter.
As soon as the teams changed over Carroll booted one for over fifty yards and Harding lowered his colors for another point. Queens lost yards on interference — the first time during the game and forty seven minutes of play having gone by during which they committed flagrant offences of this description with impunity — and on a blocked kick Little went over for another try which Anderson converted. McGill were so superior that the play lacked interest and before the going rang Carroll had notched three more points with his good right foot giving McGill an overwhelming victory over a team that had come to scoff and was now bowed in prayer before the altar of McGill supremacy.

C.P.R.A. ROAD RACE HELD ON SATURDAY

E. Lawrence, of C.P.R.A.A.A., Winner—N. Egerton, of McGill Sixth.

The annual road race of the Canadian Pacific Railway Amateur Athletic Association, of eight and one-half miles, was staged last Saturday for the Quebec championship. The race started from the corner of Mt. Royal and Papineau Ave., to Lumpkins and back. The meet proved to be a great success, due to the fine form of the 24 entries and the ideal weather conditions.

The honors of the day went to E. Lawrence, of the C.P.R.A.A.A., whose tireless stride and long wind brought him a easy first place over the long 8 1-2 mile course. E. Fabre, of the N.A.A.A. was second, and W. A. Gillespie, of the N.B.Y.M.C.A. third. The time of these three was good.

Such a noted race as this was not without the red and white, represented by Norman Egerton and E. G. Bishop, the former procuring sixth place and the latter 12th.

It is sincerely hoped that in the future, a larger number of McGill men will enter this long distance run, in order that this years' standing, although very commendable, may be surpassed.

PITT OVERWHELMS SYRACUSE ELEVEN

Orange Team Was Defeated 35-0 by the Fast Travelling Panthers

The University of Pittsburg in the game with Syracuse showed its best form of the season and defeated the Orange team by the score of 35 to 0. The Pitt goal was never in serious danger. Many attempts of the Syracuse team at forward passes were futile. The feature of the game was a 55-yard run by Winterburn, who had replaced Anderson at right halfback, for a touchdown. He broke through the Orange line, and before he reaches the goal shook off three of the visitors' tacklers. The best showing made by the visitors was by Zimmerman, Kellogg and Captain Gulick. The best football of the Orange was in the second period when they held Pitt scoreless and themselves made several substantial gains.

With only a few minutes to play in the final period, Colonna made the fifth touchdown, after the ball was carried down the field by Holleran, Winterburn and Williams, the latter substituting for the Pitt captain. The Pitt line was strong with Stein at his old place at centre.

Pitt won the toss and elected to take the ball. Gullick kicked to Holleran on the 15-yard line, who returned it to the forty before he was downed by Zimmerman. Captain Davies made first down and Anderson circled right end for thirteen yards, taking the ball to Orange's 9-yard line. Holleran failed at centre, but Davies on the next play carried the ball for the first touchdown when he received a forward pass from Anderson. Davies kicked the goal.

Zimmerman fumbled and Anderson of Pitt recovered on Syracuse's 6-yard line. The Pitt backs plunged through the Orange line and the Panthers marched steadily toward the opponent's goal. Davies went over for the second touchdown after a third down had placed the ball within six inches of the line. He kicked goal-making score 14 to 0.

In the second period the Orange grid-ders gave a fine account of themselves and held the Panthers at bay without a score. The fine work of Anderson, Zimmerman, Culver and McRae was responsible for this defensive strength.

Beginning with the third period, Winterburn, who had replaced Anderson, broke away from scrimmage and ran 55 yards for a touchdown. Davies kicked the third goal. A series of line touches by Winterburn and Hewitt, aided by two forward passes from Holleran to Davies carried the ball to the 8-yard line, when Davies went over for the fourth touchdown and also kicked goal.

The Panthers eased up in the last period and sent in a number of substitutes, among these Colonna and Poke Williams, whose line plunging carried the ball to the 1-yard line, and Colonna was pushed over for the fifth touchdown, Holleran kicked goal.

VARSITY WINS RUGGER GAME ON SATURDAY

McGill Team Guests at Hart House.

BAD WEATHER.

Bradshaw Made Several Spectacular Runs.

On Saturday afternoon, at the Varsity Stadium, in Toronto, the Rugby squads of McGill and University of Toronto met in their first encounter of the season. The two squads were in the pink of condition, and there was very little to choose between them. The field was in excellent shape for the game, but the weather conditions were very much against it. There was a very strong wind from the north-west, which at one moment was blowing down the field and the next across it, which made the place and dropping kicking very difficult. The Toronto full back found this out, when he failed to convert the two Toronto tries, one in the first half and one in 6-0 for Toronto.

McGill won the toss and chose to play with the wind. Toronto kicked off, and the ball was caught by Bradshaw. Varsity started a heavy offensive here, which was checked by runs by McLean and of McIntosh, which cleared the McGill touch line. Varsity got the ball and after several rushes Dryer scored the first touch for the blue and white. Mc-Niven failed to convert. Score 3-0. Varsity returned the centre kick to McGill three-quarters, who began a rush. In the following play Varsity was penalized for an offside interference. Manson tried a place kick for goal, which was unsuccessful. On recovering the ball the Blue and White started a rush, which was saved by the McGill three's kicking for touch, and also by their tackling. The half ended with the play in centre field, with the Varsity squad pressing very hard. Score Varsity 3; McGill, 0.

McGill kicked off at the opening of the second half. The ball was recovered by Mr. Robertson, who served a very pretty run, and was only kept from making a try by the heavy tackling of Manson, of McGill. Varsity pressed very hard, and the McGill line was saved by several runs by Anglin, and the other men of the back division. During this period the Varsity squad had several free kicks awarded against them for offside plays, and also were awarded a couple. Bradshaw recovered one of these kicks, and made a 30 yard run before being brought down. Play shifted over the field, and Varsity scored their second try when Darts and Ross fell on all oose ball behind the Red and White touch line. McNiven again failed to convert. Score 6-0. The game moved all over the field, and after some good, bad and indifferent play the game ended with McGill pressing Varsity very hard in their 25 yard area. The final score was: University of Toronto, 6; McGill, 0.

The line-ups of the teams were as follows:—

Varsity.		McGill.
Full back.
McNiven	Anglin

The game was very capably refereed by Mr. Robertson who served overseas with the London Scottish. Thanks is due him for the able way in which he handled the play at all times.
At 7 p.m. the McGill Ruggers were the guests of the Varsity squad at a very enjoyable banquet held in the Hart House Dining Hall. Sir R. Falconer, President of the University of Toronto, was one of the chief after dinner speakers. He was very desirous of seeing English Rugby placed on an equal basis with the other Major College sports.
The regular team are requested to attend a meeting at the Union at 5 p.m. to-day, to discuss plays, etc.
Besides the regular Clelland, Sol-loway, Blundell, Bruch, Trites, Lawrence, Helmken, Cooper and any other Ruggers are asked to be present.
To-morrow at 4 p.m. a regular practice will be held on the Campus.

CONVERSAT. WEDNESDAY Strathcona Hall Will be Scene of Historic Event.

The first large social event of the season for the undergraduate body will take place on Wednesday night, when the historic Conversat will be held. This is intended primarily for Freshmen, but a good many of the upper classes go as well unwilling of letting a single chance go by of improving their acquaintance with the fair sex, for the benefit of those not getting acquainted with the term perhaps it would be as well to explain its meaning. The conversat is a social function, very like a dance, except that instead of dancing we sit and talk to one's partner. This plan of introducing the men and women of the university has proved signally successful and highly popular during past years, and should be no less so this season. The R. V. C. can be counted upon to turn out in force and all are well assured of a good time. The system of rendezvous used on other similar occasions will remain again to aid the short memorized, finding their next chatting acquaintance.

The Mandolin Club will be out to furnish music for the evenings' entertainment, and should make a hit as they are going strong this year. Refreshments will of course be served during the evening, so that every end is well looked after.

All who come will be very welcome. There are plenty of attractions from charming freshettes to excellent cats, sufficient to draw out even the most conservative senior. The event is put on by Strathcona Hall and is scheduled for eight-fifteen.

VERSE

"Oh, where are you going my pretty maid?"
"I'm running away from them, she said."
"And what are they, from which you flee?"
"Those flowers, those flowers, they're wild," quoth she.

GEOLOGISTS HOLD THIRD EXCURSION Visited Pre Cambrian Outcrop Near Cartierville.

ANORTHSITE INTRUSION

The Limestones of Chezy Age in Cartierville Quarries

Saturday morning, the rain held off and the class of '23 was able to hold its third Geological Excursion, which was in the vicinity of Cartierville. This place is reached by car from Snowdon Junction behind Westmount mountain, and should any one desire to get off between stations the obliging car conductor will stop at every third or fourth fence post along the line. However this, although somewhat irritating when others were getting off, proved very useful when the class found that it would be necessary to stop half a mile this side of Cartierville.

Here the car line crosses the only Pre Cambrian outcrop on the Island of Montreal. The rock is an igneous plutonic variety called Anorthosite. It is made up almost entirely of the plagioclase feldspar Labradorite, which glimmers with peacock colors when the sun shines on it at certain angles. The crystals of Labradorite are abundantly twinned according to the Albite Law, that is, they are characterized by polysynthetic turning shown by a large number of very fine lines situated close together on the crystal face. The rock also contains the minerals Hypersthene and Bronzite, and some titaniferous iron ore. Hypersthene and bronzite are orthorhombic peroxenes, and have a bronzy appearance. Augite is a monoclinic peroxene somewhat darker in color. The titaniferous iron ore is quite black and strongly magnetic. (To be concluded tomorrow)

Going back to standard time gives us one more hour of moonshine.

BIG CELEBRATION AFTER THE GAME

Rooters Held Great Parade to Celebrate Victory.

It has long been a pleasant custom at McGill to have jubilant parades after the football games.

The procession which, on Saturday afternoon toured the town was more triumphant than ever. The rooters who had viewed the Red and White team's great victory were exactly the right mood for playful jubilation and the somewhat sharp Autumn air added zest to their march.

After carrying the members of the team in state to the dressing rooms the rooters formed up four abreast and marched off at a lively pace headed by Signor Le Baron and his famous serenaders.

The usual route was followed, Down University St. to St. Catherine St. where the traffic sat up and took notice. The Star office at the corner of Peel St. apparently agrees with Roosevelt's assertion that while it is no disgrace to be bitten by a dog there is a lack of foresight shown if the same dog bites one twice. As a result they called in the bulletin boards and the revelers had to rely on other methods of spreading the glad tidings far and wide.

Turning onto to Sherbrooke St., the usual snake dance was carried on until the Union was reached. Here Joe Wain made a short speech and called for three cheers for the team, and the McGill yell.

SUPER-QUALITY SERGES.

"King's Own" Serge Available in Semi-Ready Suits.

The finer grades of English serges—woven from the Botany wool yarns—are now $50 and $55—suitings which sold at $75 and $80 a year ago. It is on staple cloths that the real decline in prices can best be judged.

The Semi-ready Shops have a big advantage in the selling of fine serges, for their woollens are woven by the English branch of the Semi ready Company and are sold direct from maker to wearer. "King's Own" serge suits are now available at $45 and $50—Nos. 9502 and 903. Since these cloths were made wool has advanced 15 per cent.

R. J. Tooke Stores have Semi-ready Suits and Overcoats only in their Wardrobes—none other.—Advt.

LIMERICK OF LICORICE There was a young fellow named Claude; Who went out on a date with his Maude. She emitted a scream While eating ice cream—"I must sit till this chewing gum's thawed." —LUXITE.

Men wishing to participate in fencing this session will please apply to Feilding for information. He will be in the gymnasium of the Diocesan College, 743 University St., from 4.30 to 5.45 p.m., on Tuesday and Thursday this week. The first regular practice will be on Tuesday next week. The regular practice nights are Tuesdays and Thursdays, and the gym. will be open from 5 to 7 p.m.

MANY PLAY IN LADIES' TOURNAMENT.

(Continued from Page 1.) part of the week. Miss Robertson took the lead at the start and retained it to the end. When the score was 8 to 3 Miss Rough gained steadily until it was 8 to 6. Miss Rough returned many brilliant shots while Miss Robertson played a steady forceful game. With the score 8 to 6 Miss Robertson began to serve. She was showing signs of fatigue while Miss Rough was playing a winning game. The score was love—40 when by a brilliant rally Miss Robertson brought it to deuce, advantage in, and game.

Throughout the tournament the champion played a steady baseline game with strong back hand strokes and frequently clever returns. Congratulations to Miss Robertson who thus brings the victory to the Sophomore year, which gains them a point towards the R. V. C. banner.
